

NBC Transportation Community Organizer Job Opening

Background

No Boundaries Coalition (NBC) is a resident-led advocacy organization mobilizing residents in Central West Baltimore's seven 21217 neighborhoods. Since 2008, NBC has brought residents together from Sandtown, Druid Heights, Upton, Madison Park, Penn North, Reservoir Hill, and Bolton Hill to address the issues that have maintained racial and economic segregation for decades. As an organization, NBC remains rooted in the Founders' vision and mission of directing adequate resources to the neighborhoods of Central West Baltimore through community-centered approaches and intentionally created partnerships. NBC's work is focused on three core areas: Advocacy & Civic Culture, Youth Organizing & Development, and Health & Food Justice. It is believed that focusing the work in these areas will bring about the most sustainable change in the lives of those who live, work, and worship in Central West Baltimore.

Formed in 2007, the Central Maryland Transportation Alliance (CMTA) is a diverse coalition of corporate and civic leaders uniting business, philanthropic and institutional sectors around a common agenda: improving and expanding transportation options for the citizens and businesses of Central Maryland. At its core, CMTA is driven by the fundamental belief that accessible, efficient, and sustainable transportation is not just a convenience but a vital catalyst for economic growth, social equity, and community well-being. By fostering cooperation and collaboration among diverse stakeholders, CMTA believes that it can create transformative transportation solutions that serve as a backbone for the region's prosperity. CMTA is an initiative of the Baltimore Community Foundation.
